13.3 The Institute has the authority to conduct a Members' Meeting entirely by electronic communication or to provide for participation in a meeting by electronic communication of one or more Members, or proxies for Members, in all or part of a Members' Meeting, as long as the electronic communication employed ordinarily enables all persons participating in that meeting to communicate concurrently with each other without an intermediary and to participate reasonably effectively in the meeting.

13.4 Members (or if applicable their proxies) may participate in all or part of a meeting (including the meeting as adjourned) which they are entitled to attend, by electronic communication, at their own expense.

- 15.1 Unless a quorum is present within 30 (thirty) minutes of the time appointed for the meeting, or if the members in attendance fall below the requirement for a quorum as set out above, the meeting shall stand adjourned to the same time, at the same place and on the same day of the next week, and if such day be a public holiday, to the next business day thereafter.
- 15.2 At an adjourned meeting the Members present shall form a quorum and shall have full power to transact the business of the meeting which could have been transacted had the meeting been held on the date for which it was called.

- 15.3 Notwithstanding the above, an adjournment of a meeting, or of consideration of a matter being debated at the meeting may be made to a fixed date, time and place or until further notice.
- 15.4 The Institute shall not be required to give further notice of a meeting that is postponed or adjourned unless:
- 15.4.1 Another date, time or place is determined for the adjourned meeting other than as set out in paragraph 15.1., or
 - 15.4.2 It is necessary to inform registered Members of the availability of participation in the postponed or adjourned meeting by electronic means, or
 - 15.4.3 The meeting has been adjourned “until further notice” in terms of this Article of the Constitution.

The demand for a poll may be withdrawn.

- 16.4 If a poll is duly demanded, it shall be taken in such a manner as the Chairman directs, and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded. In computing the majority on the poll, regard shall be had to the number of votes to which each Member and/or proxy is entitled.
- 16.5 In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the Chairman of the meeting at which the show of hands takes place, or at which the poll is demanded, shall be entitled to a second or casting vote.
- 16.6 A poll demanded on the election of a Chairman or on a question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith.
